

COMMERCIAL MILK FORMULA MARKETING: COMMUNITIES AND EMERGENCIES

WD4493

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION: This enduring activity is designed to increase knowledge about how formula marketing impacts provision of lactation support to communities with diverse needs. Speakers will highlight the effects of formula marketing in BIPOC communities and the unique challenges of infant feeding in times of emergency or natural disaster.

OBJECTIVES:

At the conclusion of the session, the participant will be able to:

1. List three ways that commercial milk formula marketing disproportionately targets BIPOC communities
2. Name two ways that the distribution of commercial milk formula in emergency response undermines the health and well-being of breastfeeding women and babies
3. Describe two ways that this educational activity will improve my contribution as a team member in providing lactation support to families
